

JOIN OUR TEAM

Trainee - Fire Protection Technician

Community Fire Prevention is a well-established, industry leader in the local Fire Prevention market currently looking for an entry level Fire Protection Technician - Trainee to join our ever-expanding Team.

ASTTBC Certification for Fire Extinguishers & Emergency Lighting considered an asset but not required.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct Monthly, Quarterly, Semi and Annual Fire Inspections as per the 2018 BC Fire Code and all applicable CAN/ULC, NFPA and CSA inspections alongside other Registered Fire Protection Technicians
- Communicate all fire alarm control panel activity to the Technicians conducting the field testing
- Assist when required with Technicians conducting repairs or troubleshooting
- Accurate and timely completion of all Electronic inspection reports and other relevant documentation
- Daily communication with Fire Systems Project Coordinator on inspection, project delays, and overall status

Qualifications:

- Valid BC Drivers License (Drivers Abstract required)
- Strong Electrical / Electronics background
- Mechanical aptitude with basic hand tools
- Detail oriented and comfortable working in a fast-paced environment
- Ability to be resourceful and proactive when issues arise
- Must have excellent English communication skills (verbal and written) and a positive friendly attitude
- Proven Industry Success and Passion

Perks:

- Energetic work environment
- Family friendly culture
- Top Wages with incentive structures
- Company Cell, Vehicle & Fuel Card
- Company paid RRSP Contributions
- Medical/Dental/Insurance Benefits
- Opportunity to grow your career
- Paid continuing education training

Please apply at hr@comfire.ca .

604-944-9242

WWW.COMFIRE.CA